VOLUNTEER LICENSE SURRENDER INSTRUCTIONS

1. LICENSE HOLDER INFORMATION - Provide your full legal name, TDLR license number, license type, business name, mailing address, phone number, and email address.
2. VOLUNTARY SURRENDER STATEMENT - By volunteering to surrender your license issued by TDLR, you understand and acknowledge the following:
 - Voluntary Nature
This surrender is made voluntarily and without coercion.
 - Effect of Surrender
Upon acceptance by TDLR, the license will be canceled and no longer valid. I will no longer be authorized to engage in any activity that requires the license.
 - No Refund of Fees
Surrender of my license does not entitle me to a refund of any fees previously paid.
 - Future Licensure
Surrendering my license does not guarantee eligibility for future licensure. If I wish to regain licensure, I must reapply and meet current licensure requirements, which may include the need to retake licensing examinations. Any future application will be evaluated under the statutes and rules in effect at the time of application.
 - Investigations and Enforcement
Voluntary surrender of my license:
 - Does not prevent TDLR from initiating or completing an investigation or enforcement action related to conduct that occurred while the license was active; and
 - Does not relieve me of liability for any administrative penalty, sanction, or other obligation authorized by law.
 - Outstanding Obligations
I remain responsible for compliance with any statutory or rule-based obligations that arose before the effective date of surrender.
3. DECLARATION - By signing and dating this form, you declare under penalty or perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
